

Head Girls Varsity Lacrosse Coach (SY '23 - '24)

Episcopal High School is seeking a candidate to serve as the Head Girls' Varsity Lacrosse coach for the 2023-2024 school year. Candidates for this position will be considered in conjunction with a full-time position in the School's Admissions Department.

The successful candidate will understand, appreciate, and capitalize on the role that athletics in general, and lacrosse, in particular, plays in helping players learn to build together, work together, and achieve together, from a range of backgrounds, perspectives, and identities. The successful candidate will also further develop that understanding and appreciation in their athletes.

As a member of the Interstate Athletic Conference (IAC) and Independent School League (ISL) in the Greater Washington, DC area, Episcopal has a rich academic and athletic tradition and is deeply committed to seeing athletics as a crucial classroom in which our students strive for excellence and develop as healthy, determined, collaborative, and ethical leaders for the future. For more information about EHS, please visit the school's website.

Episcopal's athletic facilities rank among the finest of any high school in the mid-Atlantic region. Among the highlights:

- A stadium that seats nearly 3,000 for football, soccer, and lacrosse competition.
- Soccer fields chosen by both the U.S. men's and women's national soccer teams for training in preparation for competition.
- An indoor track and field facility, one of the few in the Washington, D.C. area.
- A new outdoor track and field facility.

As a member of a 12-person Admissions team, you will be involved in all aspects of developing and executing the School's strategic enrollment plan.

Episcopal offers the best of both professional worlds, a tight-knit and inclusive community where over 90% of faculty and 100% of students live together 24/7 on campus, nestled in historic Alexandria, Virginia, and less than eight miles from the heart of the nation's capital of Washington, D.C.

Episcopal High School is committed to providing a highly competitive employee benefits package for faculty and staff. In addition to excellent salaries, benefits, and professional development opportunities, EHS offers a number of programs, amenities, and conveniences for employees, including a comprehensive health and wellness program.

Please send a resume and list of 3-5 references to The Finney Search Group at: <https://www.thefinneysearchgroup.com/ehs-teachercoach-application> and meet the following requirements:

- Leadership experience within a competitive lacrosse program

- Strong organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills
- Understanding of the nature of boarding schools